

British Values in Citizenship and PSHE

Year Group	Citizenship	PSHE
7	Local Decision Making <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The roles played by public institutions and voluntary groups in society and the ways in which citizens work together to improve their communities Rules and Laws in Society <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The nature of rules and laws 	Relationships (Who Am I?) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Factors which shape their identity and we are all unique The importance of respecting others, even when they are very different from them (for example, physically, in character, personality or backgrounds), or make different choices or have different preferences or beliefs.
8	National Government, Parliament and Democracy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The development of the political system of democratic government in the United Kingdom, including roles of citizens, Parliament and the monarch. The operation of Parliament, including voting and elections, and the role of political parties. The Justice System <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The nature of rules and laws and the justice system, including the role of the police and the operation of courts and tribunals. Debating Skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How to prepare for a debate, the importance of debating skills, roles involved in debates, discuss topics which could cause debate and have a class debate. 	Relationships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Marriage should be entered into freely and never forced Recognise when relationships are unhealthy or abusive The concepts of grooming The similarities and differences and diversity among people of different race, culture, ability, disability, sex, gender, age and sexual orientation. The impact of stereotyping and bullying has on individuals and communities The unacceptability of prejudice-based language and behaviour Extremism
9	Liberties in the UK <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The precious liberties enjoyed by the citizens of the United Kingdom Bringing Political Change <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Different forms of action citizens can take to hold those in power to account for their actions Plan the action they would personally like to take to support change of their chosen issue 	Sex and Relationships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Facts and the law about sex, sexuality, sexual orientation, gender identity, sexual health and consent. Facts around pregnancy including miscarriage and the law relating to abortion The law and risks regarding sharing personal information, pictures (including explicit images), videos and other material using technology (including 'sexting', youth-produced sexual imagery, revenge porn, nudes and pornography etc.). Health Education (Drugs, Alcohol and Tobacco) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The law relating to legal and illegal drugs Violence and exploitation by gangs, criminal exploitation (for example, through gang involvement or 'county lines' drugs operations).

10	Citizenship <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The development of the political system of democratic government in the United Kingdom, including roles of citizens, Parliament and the monarch. • The operation of Parliament, including voting and elections, and the role of political parties. • Parliamentary democracy and the key elements of the constitution of the United Kingdom, including the power of government and the role of citizens and Parliament in holding those in power to account. • The different roles of the executive, legislature and judiciary. • A free press • Other forms of government, both democratic and non-democratic, beyond the United Kingdom. • The different electoral systems used in and beyond the United Kingdom • Local, regional and international governance. • Actions citizens can take in democratic and electoral processes to influence decisions locally, nationally and beyond. • The United Kingdom’s relations with the rest of Europe, the Commonwealth, the United Nations and the wider world. • Human rights and international law • The legal systems in the UK, different sources of law and how the law helps society deal with complex problems. • The different ways in which a citizen can contribute to the improvement of his or her community Tackling and Preventing Extremism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding and preventing extremism, how language can divide us, influence and community. 	Relationships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facts and the law relating to marriage, honour-based violence, forced marriage, unhealthy and abusive relationships, domestic abuse, including coercive and controlling behaviour, sexual exploitation, grooming, rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, sexual violence and Female Genital Mutilation.
11		Relationships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The impact of stereotyping, prejudice, bigotry, bullying, and discrimination on individuals and communities. • The legal rights and responsibilities regarding equality (particularly with reference to the protected characteristics as defined in the Equality Act 2010) and that everyone is unique and equal