Year 7

'Goldfish Boy' Matthew is trapped in his bedroom by OCD, spending most of his time watching his neighbours' daily lives. That is, until he is the last person to see his neighbour's toddler disappear.

Year 8

'Don't Doubt the Rainbow' - Edie's mother died in tragic circumstances, then she finds a note explaining how her mother had become fearful for her life after receiving death threats. She trusts only Edie because of their special bond and Edie's intelligence and has laid a trail of clues for Edie to find that will help her to shed light on the violation and uncover the mystery around her death.

Year 9

'Under A Dancing Star' - Bea has grown up kicking against the conventions of the time, whilst knowing that she will have to marry someone her parents choose - rich enough to keep the family estate alive. But she longs for much more - for adventure and romance.

Riddle in the Middle

This thing all things devours,
birds, beasts, trees, flowers.
Grinds hard stones to meal,
gnaws iron, bites steel.

Year 10

'Aristotle and Dante' is centred around two boys who couldn't be more different - however this is what brings them together and cause their friendship and love for each other to blossom and become unbreakable and legendary.
not Greek Mythology

Year 11

'The Ones who Walk Away from Omelas' - A narrator depicts a festival in the city of Omelas, whose prosperity depends on the misery of a single child. Some inhabitants of the kingdom cannot tolerate the act of cruelty that underlies its happiness.
