CRGS CAREERS BULLETIN

MAIN SCHOOL

unifrog

Whatever year group you are in, you can all benefit from using Unifrog.

The latest talks include 'Managing your wellbeing during exams & tests' and the 'Day in a Life series'.

BBC Careers: have some new resources for 2025, including 'The top 10 jobs Teens want', to watch short videos on these 10 jobs, click here.

BBC Careers: Also help you to focus on your future career, with videos of young people asking some key questions here:

1. What difference do I want to make through my work?
2. What's important to me when it comes to work? (What are my values?)
3. What skills do I want to use?
4. What are the job prospects like, both now and in the future, for the industries I'm interested in?
5. Who can help me find more information and advice?

Oxplore is run by Oxford University and aims to challenge you with debates and ideas. There are lots of 'big questions' that tackle complex ideas. To explore the website click here. Ask a 'big question' of your own: here.

VIRTUAL WORK EXPERIENCE

The Speakers for Schools website has lots of virtual work experience opportunities. Find out more here.

YEAR 11 STUDENTS: if you are still looking for an Apprenticeship, click here to browse opportunities.

Access the latest 'Choices' magazine here, to read about a wide range of apprenticeships - this magazine is also aimed at parents.

Careerometer tells you what different jobs earn and also whether this is a job sector that is expected to grow. Find out more here.

Examples: Radiographers: 9.6% growth; Dentist: 9.6%; Accountants: 12.2%; Solicitors & Lawyers: 12.2% growth. Have a search for yourself... What will you search for?

To access the Amazing Apprenticeships, Student Zone: click here. There is lots of information to help you to understand Apprenticeships.

If you are considering university as a future option, do you know which universities score highest in the university rankings - including for different subjects?

Find out at the Guardian league tables here.

You can also look at the Complete University Guide here.
